The Lord has decided to take a precious gift to join him. He was born in Brooklyn on February 18, 1964, to Buelah Mae Gipson and the late William (Bill) Gipson. Ronald graduated from George Westinghouse High School in Brooklyn in 1985. He continued his studies by graduating with an associate degree in medical coding at Ultimate Academy Studies. Ronald joined the Freewill UME Church in Thomasville, North Carolina, when he was a young man. He was an active and faithful member. Ronald was a member of the People of faith, served on the board of trustees, and served as the usher of the Church. Ronald was very active in various positions in his life. He worked for Verizon Telephone Company for five years. Knowing that he wanted to expand his horizons, he moved to High Point, North Carolina, and worked for several companies, including Food Lion, Sears, Thomasville Furniture and Harris Teeter. He quietly departed this life on Saturday, November 28, 2020 at 1:30 a.m. at High Point Regional Medical Center in High Point, North Carolina. Ronald leaves to cherish the precious memories of his two sons, Gerald Xavier Gipson and Nicholas Anthony Gipson, both from High Point, NC; a daughter, Ashley Daniella Little of High Point, NC; his mother, Buelah Gipson of Manning, SC; three brothers, Bill (Lucretia) Gipson, III's beloved friend and ex-wife, Alisa Gilmore-Gipson of High Point, NC; nine aunts, Ersie (Leroy) Blackwell of Brooklyn, NY, Louise (Morris) Thompson of High Point, N.C., Julia (Jacob) Andrews of Little Mind, TX, Susie Mae (Walter) Oree of the Bronx, NY, Herline Alston of Jacksonville, FL, Carolyn Bennett of Richmond, VA, Daisy McFadden of Baltimore, MD, Elizabeth McFadden and Daisy Guess, both of Sumter, SC; two uncles, Thomas Lee (Gloria) Gipson of West Haven, CT and Gerald Turner of Bronx, NY; many nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, church family and friends. God saw that the journey was getting long it was hard to climb He gently closed his tired eyes and whispered: Peace Be tessit His days are laborious, his nights of pain He tired hours past, his sick, worn, tired frame found sweet rest at last. Lovingly submitted, the family and children send flowers to the family or plant a tree in memory of Ronald Demetrius Gipson, please visit the flower shop. Store.
